“ He was one of those guys who always had a good joke and always was very likeable. Out of the many people I went to school with, Ryan was one of the dozen people I wanted to keep in touch with. He was always incredibly creative and smart. Many condolences to the family, Ryan will be greatly missed.

“ Hard to explain but Ryan was like like a son and brother to me. Every time we met we had a man hug with a perfect hand slap that was loud and crisp. A meaningful hug that he obliged me when he was younger and mastered with me as he got older. So many things we shared over the years, hunting in the fall, trap in the winter, lake time in the spring and summer and euchre every chance we could. Too many times, too many places to call them all out.

“ It was a honor to be able to coach Ryan in baseball for several years starting at just 8 years old. He was a great baseball player and such a nice, respectful and mature young man. On and off the field. My greatest memories were his contagious smile everyday at baseball and sharing a memory together of "Living the Dream" tournament in Cooperstown, NY with our entire Michigan Elite baseball team. Some great photos we've looked at from that special week since we heard the heart breaking news. Ryan will be truly missed but the great memories we had together will live forever. Our sincere thoughts and prayers go out to Bob, Kim, Chelsea and Abigail.

*Love Forever,
Coach Joe Raccosta, Michelle, Jessica, Zach and Julia*
