“God looked around his garden and he found an empty place
He then looked down upon this earth and saw his tired face
He put his arms around him and lifted him to rest
God's garden must be beautiful, he always takes the best
He knew that he was suffering, he knew he was in pain.
He knew he would never get well on earth again
He saw that the road was getting tough and the hills were hard to climb
He whispered "Peace be Thine"
It broke our hearts to lose him but he did not go alone
For part of us went with him
The day God called him home
I hope this gives you as much comfort as it did to us (Rosie gave it to me when my mom passed)
My thoughts and prayers are with you, Jeri"
