“ Dear Jeanne and the Mazza Family, As we celebrate the life of Sam Mazza. Sam was such a wonderful man. He was my very first mentor in the world of sales. He was always prim and proper. When my children were very young he ran into my wife (Michela) pumping gas.

Always the gentleman, Sam insisted that she sit in the car and tend to the kids while he pumped the gas for her. He was never ever too busy to help me learn many of the nuances of sales . Sam & Jeanne many times shared there home for poker parties. Where us younger Harold Paper guys, learned our sales trade from the seasoned veterans of Harold Paper. Sam the ultimate family man, I am so honored have known Sam. He trully touched my life with interest in people, his values, and his spirit.. Sam's values,humor and spirit continues on through his wonderful children and grand children as they touch our lives. “Tom, Steve, Len and family,

No matter the age it is so difficult to lose someone so close (especially Dad). While we did not know Sam, he unknowingly enriched our lives by having and sharing his wonderful family with us. Our hearts and prayers go out to you as you come together in this difficult time.
Love John, Chris and James Costa”

“Dear Jeanne and the Mazza family, Our condolences, thoughts and prayers to you and your family as we heard of Sam's passing. As sad as we were when we heard the news, the moment we began to remember Sam, it was with a smile and so many good memories.
He always had a smile on his face, a joke to tell, and he was quick his wit. His service to the community and St. Sylvester were beyond words. May the love of family and friends and all your wonderful memories and stories help you through the days ahead. Blessings to you all.”

“”Mr. Mazza" was "Top Shelf" !!! I am saddened, with a heavy heart & tears in my eyes as i write... GOD has called a great man home. Always a delight & pleasure to be with. My favorite memory is; a time when Tom (another "Top Shelf" ~ no wonder why) had us guys over to play cards in the basement. Mr. Mazza came down just to say "Hi" & asked if any of us would like some wine (yes, we were old enough). I said; "Sure Mr. Mazza, I'll have ONE with ya". We finished the whole bottle !!!Love ya' Mr. Mazza, rest in peace & we'll have 'another one' soon ! Your wine drinkin' buddy,Joel Fedorchak"

“*I cannot say, I will not say,
That he is dead, he is just away.
With a loving look and a wave of his tail,
He's wandered into an unknown land,
And left us dreaming how very fair,
It needs must be, since he lingers there.
And you, oh you, who the wildest yearn,
For the old time step and the glad return,
Think of him still the same I say,
He is not dead, he is just away.*”
