“ My heartfelt condolences to the entire family of dear Sarah Serra. She was a wonderful, cheerful and supportive person and was always kind. As the daughter of her husband's 1st cousin, Philip F. Serra, Sr., I always enjoyed visiting her beautiful home and she was the best cook! Her husband, Philip J. Serra, lived in the same house as my dad and his family growing up on Waterloo in Detroit in the 20-s-40-s. The two Serra families were close and so were we as cousins. Many happy memories and forever rest in peace dear Sarah.

“ So very sorry for her loss to all of her children and surrounding family.

"Auntie" Sarah had the most memorable smile - and genuine love that rang so true. As a young girl, she always would embrace me with her loving arms (and hug me so special she made me feel!) when she came to visit my grandparents, Frank and Grace Serra.

I so loved her! And as much, her husband, our Uncle Phil too. Both are deeply missed with wonderful fond memories to hold and cherish always.
