“Sharon was my sister's kindergarten teacher, but she watched over and cared for each student, year after year. She and both of her daughters babysat us in the summer and they were wonderful times. May she rest peacefully and I pray her family finds comfort in the wonderful life she lead.”

“She was a wonderful lady... As a kindergarten teacher she held the hearts and hands of so many young children, me included.... She made a scary situation, of stepping into the world of school, bare able and made a scared little girl get through the days! God bless those morning her passing...”

“I am so sorry and saddened to hear of the recent passing of Ray & Sharon Henderson. So appropriate they are together again. I was blessed to have spent many happy times with these 2 in the last couple years. Sundays at Liberty Lanes for lunch (usually Ray's treat) followed by some lively tunk games turned into weekly events. Many laughs & memories made. They will be deeply missed.”
