“"To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die." —Thomas Campbell

Simon will always live on in my heart and thoughts. I was blessed to know him for close to 20 years. He was a man of big dreams and moved to put them into reality. My thoughts and prayers go out to Sace, Nick, Christian, and Jonathon. May all the family and friends find peace and comfort together during this difficult time. Simon, may you make God and the angels smile as you have done with so many down here. May we all reunite someday in heaven above.

“ I recently found out the terrible news about Simon. I first met Simon as a electric motor technician around the summer of 99'. It started as he needed help at the shop on the weekends and soon turned into fulltime employment. The first couple of years we traveled together at times and had some great conversations. We talked quite a bit about our Lord. He made me realize somethings that I was confused about and after research I found to be true. Going forward It seemed, almost, as if he recognized things about me and helped me with certain areas in my life, that I'll never forget!!! I know in my heart, with no doubt !, that he loved Jesus Christ! I can honestly say that one of the reasons I was able to beat the alcohol addiction I've been struggling with most of my life, stemmed absolutely from the talks we had! (Sober since Aug 2014). Simon was one of the most generous men I've ever met and his heart is enormous and genuine. I still tell hilarious stories about working with him around the appropriate coffee tables and always will, we had some great times(although sometimes stressful, haha). He had been recently on my mind and I was planning on popping in on him these coming holidays. I sincerely pray that his loved ones can somehow feel some kind comfort knowing that he's, without a doubt, with our Lord and savior and in his glorified healthy body with no ailments what so ever! I'll always have nothing but respect and fond memories of him! He'll be greatly missed! I'm so sorry for the family, God bless you's !!!
