“ Whenever we saw Steve we knew everyone would have a fun day. He was the life of the party and had so many hilarious stories. I don't know if he got himself into strange predicaments or just was a great story teller, but everyone loved him. A very nice, caring, fun, always helpful and all around great guy. He loved his family and was so proud of Jacob and Addie. It is hard to believe he is gone. God has a plan for us all and Steve was needed. May you rest in peace. See you on the other side my friend.

“ Here is all you need to know about Steve...The first time I met Steve, I was sick with cancer, getting chemo treatments, and finding it hard getting around in the cold weather. A mutual friend of ours told him I was looking for a used car for my son who was away at college, and we were having a hard time finding one. Steve went out of his way to find us a reliable car and even drove it out to our house (which was not close to him) for a test drive and eventual purchase. THAT is a nice human being. It always impressed when thinking back on that experience. His memory will live on. May God bless Steve and sincere condolences to his family.

“ Where do we start? He was one of the most kind, funny, honest, people we have ever met. He always had a wonderful story to make us laugh, did great work on our cars, and helped us out when we left the sunroof open in a rainstorm. He always said wonderful things about Tara and the kids. Can't believe he is gone. We will truly miss him.

“ Steve always fixed my cars quickly and at a good price, he always had a smile and a funny story, he would even drive me to work and drive my car back and it would be fixed at the end of the day. I'm keeping all the family in prayer, and talk to Steve in my heart often. He is one of the good ones. George S.

“ I really enjoyed working for Steve during my years in college. We always had a great time. I can remember many sunny days when we would get off early, and hit the golf course for 9 or 18 holes. Those were the days!! RIP my friend.

“ Steve was a great guy. I often stopped to see him while working on the Almont Police Dept. He was always willing to check out the cars if we had a minor issue. I also bought a personal vehicle from him and it has been a fantastic car. I will miss his smile and willingness to help out no matter what the issue was. Ed Siladke
