

Thomas R. Maceri

April 14, 1950 - August 8, 2024

MACERI, Thomas. August 8, 2024. Age 74. Passed away unexpectedly but peacefully and is now with his Savior Jesus. Beloved husband of the late Frances (nee Ternullo). Loving father of Maria Forster (Chris), Sam Maceri (Jocelyn), Teresa Caniglia (Kris), and Joseph Maceri (Kathleen). Proud and loving Papa of his grandchildren Valerie (Travis), Charles, Christina, Alexis, Tommy, John, Brendan, Gracie, Grace, Domiano, and Michael; and his great-grandchildren Analisa and Francesca. Dear brother of Justine Croco (the late Joe), the late Sam Maceri (Mary Anne), An Vitale (Tom), and Anthony Maceri (Lori). Predeceased by his parents Sam Sr. and Josephine (nee Cogliotti) Maceri.

Tom met his wife at the age of 13, they became high school sweethearts, married after graduation, and quickly fulfilled their dream of filling their home with their children. They were married for 52 years. They raised a beautiful family together and owned several businesses in the food and produce industries. During his younger years, Tom enjoyed coaching his children's athletics, while also participating in softball and bowling. He was a highly accomplished bowler, earning (3) 300 rings, and had several 299 games. Tom was the life of the party, and lived to make people laugh. He was most proud of his family, boasting to friends and coworkers about them all his life. In his later years he most enjoyed spending time with his wife, golfing, cigar nights, and enjoying the family that they had built together.

“ You think I don't see but I do. I am not well but I have never ever forgotten the most favorite of all and closest to the core of my heart.. The Maceri and Croco families. I watch , I cry alone, Joe, Sammie, Fran.. and now Tommy... how hurt all of their spouses will never stop living with... Tommy, I was shocked... I loved my cousins even though we drifted... I loved my Godchild Annie... you think I have forgotten.... never... GOD BLESS US ALL AND MAY OUR lord and Savior know how much we love him first. Patty
