“ It is almost one month to the minute since you departed. We miss you more than ever. But somehow you are still here with us and always will be here. Thank you for everything but most of all, thank you for your never ending support and love only a father like you could provide. You are in our hearts and prayers until the end of time. Rest in the eternal peace and love that you worked so hard to deserve. I love you always my father.

“ My grandfather was a kind and loving man. While his love and generosity were quiet behind the scenes, his humor and character were loudly shared for all to enjoy. He is deeply missed by his entire family, who will always remember him for his strong commitment to family, country and faith. With fondest memories and love always,
Your Granddaughter Sarah

“Dad, I am today what you inspired me to be and that is hardworking, perseverant, witty, strong-willed, aggressive, motivated, and with an incredible love for life. You strived every single day of your life to make ours more fulfilled. Momma was your true soulmate in life and I have never known two people more in love with each other than you and Mom. You made sure that she would be well taken care of after you left us. We will make sure that she continues on with all of the love you instilled in us as a family. Your love of family closeness will continue on into the generation of your grandchildren. Rest knowing that you will always be in my heart until we meet again. You are and will forever be my hero and mentor. Thank you for the precious memories we shared especially in Italy with Momma and Monica Ann. What a wonderful time that was and I am forever thankful that you pushed me to go. I also thank you for fighting for our country's freedom. You came from the greatest generation and came home to make our lives successful. You are and will be loved and missed by many who knew you and will forever be remembered as a great man and friend to all who needed your help. They always knew to come to you for support. We must remember what we forgot . . . we must forget what sadness we remember, to remember not to forget the unforgettable. God through your Son Jesus Christ, please embrace my father with eternal love and peace. I will love you, Papa, forever. God truly blessed me the day you became my dad.
