“I just learn today about Lt. Col Lynch. It sadden me to hear the news. I served as a sergeant under his command in 1994 at FT. Hood TX. He was a great commander who was very passionate about his job. I'll never forget the time when I was the beach master on Bradley Table 8, when he approached me upset about why I wasn't moving the battalion through fast enough. I told him I was in charge of the beach and when I say they go, they go. He paused and just looked at me then said, " I still love ya! " I'll never forget that, he was a great commander. My condolences to the family. "Garry Owen! ""

“This saddens my heart. I went to West Point with Tim, and we knew each other well. We had classes together, we had military training together, we socialized together. After graduation, we saw each other less frequently, but each time we did, it was like we lost contact. What a great guy! I mean that...a wonderful, fun, kind, generous, decent guy. I will miss him so...to think of never seeing him again in this world saddens me. I want more time with him...”

“”To the Lynch Family. Please accept the Orlich family's deepest sympathy and condolences from Hawaii. Tim was a great mentor and friend. We have lost a great American hero. He embodied professionalism, integrity, honor, and selfless service. I would not be where I'm at today without his leadership, guidance and example. He was instrumental in getting me into the regular army and my spouse down to GTMO. Our daughter Isabella Orlich would not be here today if it hadn't been for Tim's tireless efforts. He inspired us all to greatness and touched so many lives on so many levels. I honor him with my continued service in the military. We are having a mass offered up for Tim. He made a difference everyday. He lives on forever in all of our hearts and inspires us all to make a difference each day. Aloha and blessings from his Ohana in Hawaii forever.”

“”To The Lynch Family, I am so terribly sorry for your loss. Mr. Lynch (as I knew him as a child) was a brave, compassionate and caring man. During my formative years, I got to know Colonel Lynch (through my friendships with Dave and Liz) and I always looked up to him as a role model and mentor. It is with a heavy heart and tears in my eyes that I am writing this, but I wish you all strength and perseverance through this trying time. The world lost a great man but we can all thank God for the times that we got to know Colonel Lynch. I will never forget my freshman year of high school year when the Colonel gave me an open invitation to go surfing with him every weekend. I was going through a pretty rough time in my home life during that year but I always looked forward to those weekend trips to Barber's Point with the Colonel. I will also never forget his stoic facial expressions and mannerisms. You always knew that if you made Mr. Lynch laugh than the story had to be pretty funny!!!Much Love,Drew Baldauf”

“Tim's day has now passed -- very, very sadly, for all -- but now he lives within us, for the rest of our own days. From August 1973 onwards, that persona -- centered on a cool, collected, serious yet humorous demeanor -- was as steady as a rock. As a company mate, B-2, at West Point, he was held in the absolute highest regard, by all. As a leader, he was without peer. As a fellow officer, he was the standard, and I saw him to the last, of his active duty days. For decades, his presence in our B-2 photo, atop the mantlepiece, has never been overlooked, either -- nor will it, for the rest of time. My deepest condolences go to the family, and all who knew Tim. This has been a sad day, for us. Ralph Masi, COL USA (Ret.)
