“ Tim was a wonderful, kind, loving man who brought light into this world and to the people he loved. He turned on a light in Pam that I personally witnessed and I must say it was beautiful! The world will be a lot less bright without him in it. Tim was such a funny guy! We were at a mutual friends wedding that I was hosting at my house, In the evening I changed out of my dress into a camouflage shirt and when I approached the table, Tim says "Wendy where are you"? I in turn was like what? He laughed and said oh there you are, I almost didn't see you because of your camouflage! I just thought that was cute, corny and hilarious all at the same time. Tim you will be missed but I know you will stay near and be your families angel always. Rest in peace and may the perpetual light shine upon you.

“ I worked with Tim at home depot and even though he worked nights and I only saw him for one hour he always made my day better. Something Tim would always say to me was how i'm such a happy and smiley person so now every time I'm smiling I will be thinking of Tim.

“ The world has lost a good man and you have lost your dad/husband. It was a pleasure to have known him all these years. Five trees for five lives you have touched.

May you always feel his hand on your shoulder and hear his laugh echo in your heart.

“ Tim and I skipped School together with Dan for the first Tim ever to go get concert tickets for STYX. We got the tickets and were greeted outside by Police who took us to the police station to call our parents to let them know we had Skipped School. While the Sargent was out of his office Tim took most of his pens and pencils off the Sargents desk and put them in his pocket. The Sargent thankfully didn't notice. When he came back and told us he was taking us back to school Tim Begged the Sargent to put us both in Hand cuffs before he walked us in. The Sargent laughed and said No but Tim kept trying. Needless to say we had a great time at concert, thanks again Dan!!! Tim I'll miss you My Brother, To Your Family I'm Sorry For Your Loss.

“ Almost 50 years of friendship. We have had a lot of good times from quarter bounce to car shows. You were even there when I met my wife. And it never mattered when or where you were always there to help, laugh or even throw-down!

Deepest condolences to your family!!

Miss you a GREAT DEAL and a true friend!!!
