“ Mrs. Gould and \"Doc\" (Greg) Just heard today (6/15) otherwise I would have paid my respects in person. Dr. Gould treated both myself and my mom (Kathleen) for many, many years - medically, respectfully and very professional in his physician/patient relationship - but my heart knows - He cared personally also. My condolences to your family.

“ Dear Jean, I know I do not have to tell you what a wonderful man you were married to but I do have to tell you what a wonderful doctor he was. I believe I am still running around because he cared so much to find out the latest treatments for my problem and he was so excited when he found something new to help me. I have never found another like him and I know I will not. God bless you and your family.

I can't say I knew Dr Gould well, since I only spent 6 weeks doing my rheumatology rotation with him. And to be honest, it was near of my residency training so most of our conversations were not much about medicine, but more about life in general as a doctor. He shared his life experience with me, and even though it has been over 20 years now, I still remember him warning me not gain too much weight eating out at finer restaurants. I don't know why that's one of the few things I remember from my brief time spent with him, perhaps it was because he said it from a sincere and caring place. Anyway, looking back at my life for the past 20 years, like Dr Gould predicted, I did gain quite a bit of weight and each time I tried to lose weight, I would remember his advice. RIP, Dr Gould. You were absolutely right.

“ Dear Jean, I am so sorry, please accept my deepest sympathy. Todd and I shared some really great years at Otterbein and I will always cherish great memories of our friendship. I was very honored to be his best man at your wedding. I always appreciated and enjoyed his great sense of humor. From early on in our friendship, I knew his greatest desire was to become a doctor-I was in awe of his tenacity and dedication to achieve this goal. I'm sure over the years he has touched, helped and healed many and may he now join Gods Kingdom for his reward.
