“ My Aunt Vera was the best aunt ever. I wish she would be here for Taylor and Sara's homecoming. She was mom to Sara, Aunt to Taylor and wife to my Uncle Mark. We will always love her. Sammy.

“ We send our condolences to the family of Vera. We have not known her well but from the few contacts we have had in the neighborhood and store Vera had to be a very loved lady with one great personality. God be with you Vera

“ Aunt Vera, she was one of the greatest women that I will meet in this lifetime. She had a good soul and was so giving to me shelly and owen. Vera will be missed always. It helps me to get through this sad time looking at lot's of pictures and remembering good memories. I like to think we will all be together in a better place someday It's never good bye.

“ Vera's loss brings much sadness to all who knew and loved him. May the words of Jesus Christ bring the family comfort. Please read John chapter 11 there he demonstrates that our loss loved ones like Vera can live again by means of a resurrection. He promises this will happen when he says at John 5:28-29 the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out. My heartfelt wish is that this message of hope brings the family peace.

“ Vera was a glorious and generous friend, a loving and devoted mother and the kind of person we all aspire to be. She lived her life with faith and joy. While we are so very sad that she is no longer here to share coffee and a smile she will always have a place in our hearts. Sara- your mom will always be with you. Whenever she spoke of you she referred to you as "her Sara"...that is what you will always be. I see her generous and loving spirit in you and I hope you can feel her loving smile beaming down on you.

“ Mark, Sara, Taylor, Didi and Brother Joe, I'm so very sorry for your loss. Vera was always kind to me. I was heart broken when I read the paper today. Mark, I don't know how it feels to lose a wife, so I'm not going to try. Just accept my condolences. Didi, Brother Joe, to lose a sister maybe one hardest things in life. I'll have a good thought for you today. Sara, Taylor, I do know what losing your mom is. This sadness and pain like all things will pass. In time what will be left is all the fun times and good memories. Please, if their is anything I can do let me know BILL KLINE.
