“ I never had the chance to build a personal relationship with Vik, but I truly valued the work relationship we shared. I was also a good friend of his brother, Bryce Reynolds. Although Vik and I haven't worked together in 18 years since my retirement, when my brother, Ray Wynn, moved over to the Design Building, he met Vik. Knowing of me, Vik and Ray formed a special bond and friendship. Vik would often ask about me, and my brother kept me updated on his kind thoughts.

Vik was not only a great leader in our department, but an even greater man. He will be missed by many.

God Bless, 🙏

“ I've only known Victor for a few years but his infectious smile and kindness got me from the start. I enjoy cooking and baking and love to share with Victor and he seemed to love it too. I kinda adopted him as the grandfather I never had and would go over with my goodies and he couldn't thank me enough, he always loved the bright colors I wore and I always got a hug and sometimes a kiss . He always wanted to do something for me and being able watch him light up and want that hug was more than I could have ask for. Rest in peace my dear friend you will always be in my heart and prayers 🙏🙏🙏💔 Pat from across the street
