“”A finish carpenter is known for the work they do to beautify a home, my father-in-law was certainly gifted in that regard. His truest gift for building, however, was evident in the family he helped his wife, Grazia, to build. The love that abounds when my wife's family is together is one of the most beautiful things I've ever witnessed I feel blessed to have known Enzo and I will be certain to cherish the family that he leaves behind. I will miss the friendship, the conversations, the jokes, the stories, the card games, the trips, and the many meals that we were fortunate to share, but my faith assures me that he is in a better place. Thank you "dad" for everything.”

“”Although I did not know Mr. D'Agosta, his legacy is evident in the wonderful family we are blessed to be a part of. In the words of my Irish ancestors, "May the road rise to meet you, May the wind be always at your back, May the sun shine warm upon your face, And rains falls soft upon your fields, And until we meet again, My God hold you in the hollow of His hand". - An Irish Blessing With deepest sympathy - The Sloan Family”
