“ Dear Fabbri Family, We were sadden to hear of your mothers passing. We all have fond Memories of your parents. They both lead their lives with such strength and grace, never forgetting where they came from and how important family was. It showed in everything they did, always talking about their children. I feel as if people from their generation are Legendary, Please know there is comfort in beautiful memories and we are sorry for the loss of your mother. You are all in our prayers, The family of Lino Casadei
