“ Jinny Horn showed so much love and care to all she knew. We loved when she would join Jim and Deb to come over and visit with us and our family. Jinny was just such a pleasant person to know and very thoughtful even to our young boys. Even our children loved when she came to visit because she always had interesting and often humorous stories to tell. It was nice too to see her happiness and how she especially seemed to like BBQ and she was never to proud to go back for second helpings. That’s the ultimate compliment to a BBQ chef. We’re gonna miss Jinny but will always have great memories, and we know too that we will eventually see Jinny and Cliff again when Gods heavenly plan comes to be. We pray God bless the Horn family and bring them peace and comfort in this time of loss and grief. Amen.

“ My memory of your Mom was how loving, caring, thoughtful and kind she was way back when we were all younger. Ginny and Cliff gave the Horn family a solid foundation to build on. Currently my updates on family come through my daughter. When the need arises I do prayful work for one and all knowing God is in control and loves each one of his precious children. Virginia is the rose on the other side of the garden wall now and she has the comfort, joy, peace and love that comes from our dear Lord and Savior. God is good.
