“Growing up on Pocahontas and spending a lot of time playing around the neighborhood, I felt ad though Vita was a second mom to me...she always watched out for me as if I was her own. And I loved her cooking and baking. She will be missed, but I am glad she is now reunited with her other half in a beautiful place of rest.”

“So sorry you lost your mother. I knew Vita and Steve from when we were neighbors in Villa Dioro and from St. Therese. They were wonderful, warm, and friendly. I would often see Vita walking to church for Holy Hour on Thursdays. Now the two of them are together.....blessings to her children and grandchildren.”
