GUZZARDO, Vito. September 13, 2023. Age 90. Beloved husband of 68 cherished years to Patricia (nee Mattingly). Loving father of Carol (Don) Titus, Linda (Tim) Guzzardo, Diane (Tom) Clingenpeel, Margie (the late Dave) Briggs and Sue (Butch) Ericson. Adored grandfather of Chris Titus, Jeremy Titus, Eric Titus, Kim (Eric) DiPalma, Jennifer DeMaria, Anthony (Chantal) DeMaria, Danielle (Leo) Clingenpeel, Zack Briggs, Nick (Ally) Briggs, Matt Briggs, David Briggs, Emilee Ericson and Noah Ericson; great-grandfather of Sofia and Nina DiPalma, Enzo, Arianna and Gianna Titus and Giovanni and Nico DeMaria and David Briggs. Vito loved spending quality time with his family and his greatest joy was the time he spent with his grandkids and great-grandkids. “ My sincere condolences go out to Pat and the family during this time of mourning. What a long and beautiful marriage Vito and Pat had! I remember encountering them at mass at Saint Thecla Church on Sundays years ago when I lived in Clinton Township. They always seemed so happy together. May the Good Lord grant Vito eternal light, love and peace and bring loving consolation to Pat and their family.

*In deepest sympathy,
Dave Martin, a former Sears Lakeside coworker (Customer Convenience Center) - late 1970s - early 1980s*

“ Dear Pat and family,
Vito was certainly one of a kind. God broke the mold when they made him. He loved to tease and was good at receiving it back. He was a good friend and neighbor for fifty years. Bonnie Court will not be the same without him. Eternal rest my friend.

“ So sorry to hear of Vito leaving us. He was such a fun loving man, always joking around. Bob and I had lots of fun driving several times to Belle Isle for the St. Vincent DePaul Walk for the Poor with Vito and Pat. Although he couldn't participate in the walk, he just loved being there with everyone as well as the food. But he'd save us a table ! He was a valued member of our St. Thecla St. Vincent dePaul conference. He would put canisters out in the community collecting donations for our SVDP conference. Blessings to Vito & Pat.
