“ Nonno, I just came across the candle and candle holder you helped me put together in my new house! It brought a smile and tear to my face. I miss you more and more each day. Thank you for giving me soo many wonderful memories. As days go on, I've been remembering memories I almost had forgotten. I hope you are having a good old time with zip Gino and soo many others. I hope you caught the balloon I sent up in the air to heaven this morning. I love you more than you know.

“ Zio Vito, you have left us so many good memories! My childhood was blessed with your presence and the love, the kindness, the generosity that you nourished not only for my dad, (your brother Gino) but for our entire family. I don't think my dad would have ever stayed in Canada if he didn't have you near him, remember how we would come over every Saturday, and then sleep over? All those delicious olives and those peanut butter and jelly sandwiches were the best, just because we were together everything was perfect. Even if across the ocean, we have never felt the distance, because we were always close with our thoughts and heart. Today I am too far to embrace you a last time, but I know that God will let you feel my warming love for you. You know Zio, Dad came in a dream last night to my mom and told her that he came to visit you and that you were together, just like old times. I know that you are now in a better place, where there is no suffering, and one day we will all be together. I will always remember you with a smile! Forever in my heart, con tanto amore tua nipote enza

“ When we lived next to each other many years ago in our younger years, we felt more like family than neighbors. Mr. Vito was kind, funny, hard working and a caring man. I remember Dino and I watching our fathers stand by the fence that separated our homes and they would talk for an hour. My dad not knowing any Italian, and Mr. Vito not knowing any English at that time, but they would laugh, and talk and it was wonderful to see two very different men communicate as if they were brothers telling each other about their day. My prayers and thoughts are with your family just as they have been throughout the years. Heaven has gained yet another beautiful soul.

God Bless,

“ We were saddened to read of Vito's passing. We lived next door to Vito , his wife and Dino until Dino was married.

We became friends soon after they moved in. I understod Italian, but sometimes Vito spoke too fast for me to understand what he said.

Since we moved, i ocasionaly met Vito from time to time mostly at Vince and Joe's market.

We used to help one another with shoveling snow. When it was a large snow fall, I helped him by using our snow blower.

May he be in a beter place and may God Bless him.

We wil mis him.

“ Vito was the best neighbor we have ever had! He was kind hearted and helpful and like a second Dad to us - always keeping a watchful eye on us like family. He always said hello and met us with a smile! We'll miss you Vito, but Heaven's sweeter with you there! Hugs & Kisses from Dan & Sandy Brachel

“ Nonno,
I love you with all my heart!! I will cherish every moment I had with you. From using electric tape to fix or make something; to making pretend "pizza's" with playing cards; to playing rummykub and you yelling at nonna for cheating!!! And every time we would play you would always say you wanted me on your team, because if I was we would win!
Nonno, you not being here with us does NOT feel real at all. Looking at your picture on this webpage doesn't feel real either. We all are hoping you will walk through the door.
But I know you are at peace now. And I hope you are looking down on all of us. I love you Nonno. Until we meet again!!
