

Walter Richards Elliott, Sr.

November 24, 1935 - November 15, 2024

ELLIOTT, SR. WALTER RICHARDS. Born November 24, 1935, and Passed away November 15th 2024, at the age of 88. Beloved husband of Dolores. Loving father of Carol (Dave) Poterek, Elizabeth (Rich) Christina, and Walter Jr. (Marilyn) Elliott. Proud grandfather of Paul (Julie) Maiorana, Laura(Colby) Maiorana, John Christina, Michael Christina, Ethan Elliott, Erin Elliott, and great grandfather of Jackson, Austin and Isaac Maiorana, Abraham and Caroline Maiorana. Dear brother of Katie (the late Keith) Palmer, Mary Elizabeth (the late Richard) Bole, William (Beverly) Elliott, the late Margaret (the late Don) Monroe & the late Raymond Elliott. He was predeceased by his parents, Blanchard and Georgia Elliott.

Walter was an avid reader and loved his daily crossword puzzles. He loved to golf and bowl, was on the DPOA golf and bowling league. He once bowled a 275 game! He learned wood carving and made numerous duck and bird carvings for family and friends. He was a great sketch artist and drew pictures of his grandchildren.

Retiring after 31 years as a Detective Sargent from the Detroit Police department, they enjoyed many winters in Florida and Arizona. After moving from the family home in Detroit they moved to their home on the lake in Waterford, MI. He enjoyed spending time on his pontoon boat and making memories with the grandkids. Walter said he'd had a great life. He was a man of few words, but he had a great sense of humor. He was a devoted husband, loving father and grandpa an awesome great grandpa.

“ Grandpa Elliott was a very kind man who always treated me so well, even though I was just a friend of his grandson. I’m so happy he got to see great grandkids and lived such a long and fulfilling life with his wonderful wife. My condolences to the family, he will be missed.
