

Walter William Frederiksen

March 4, 1959 - September 24, 2022

Frederiksen, Walter W. September 24, 2022 Age 63

Walt was born in Detroit, MI. He grew up in Inkster before moving to Dryden and graduating Almont High School. He met the love of his life, Jacqueline, in college. They graduated from Oakland University together.

Even as a young boy, Walt had a passion for acting and music that inspired his early radio career. He began working at WRIF as a college intern. Walt's massive charisma and talent quickly resulted in him becoming an on-air weekend personality.

Walt's passion for entertainment led him to achieve an extensive career in advertising. He dedicated almost 30 years to his Little Caesars family, where he was a beloved, valued team member and dear friend. As a Senior Director of Advertising, he became known as "the voice behind Little Caesars." He was revered as an extraordinary storyteller who loved to make people laugh. He felt incredibly privileged to have worked on many radio, print, and national television ads over his long career, but was especially proud of the meaningful relationships that transcended the work, building friendships that deeply enriched his life.

Those who knew Walt understood his deep knowledge and love of music. His appreciation spanned many genres, as well as collecting and playing guitars. He was a frequent concert attendee and entertainment aficionado. His energetic spirit translated into the love and care he poured into his family. He spent most Sundays golfing with his father and two sons. His selfless nature ensured that being the most loving father, brother, husband and son always remained his most impressive talent of all. He never hesitated to share abundant love and kindness, and he left a lasting impact on everyone he met. Despite many years battling chronic illness, Walt always persevered with unmatched optimism, humor and drive. It never defined him or slowed him down. He will forever be cherished for his deep love and devotion toward his family and friends.

Walt is survived by his beloved wife Jacqui. Dear father of Dane (Sarah) and Austin. Loving son of Walter (the late Lillian). Brother of Susan, and Donna (Andy) David. Uncle of Kelly (Kohl) Bechtel, Maria (Dustin Burch) David, Monica (Danny) Pulver, Ashley (Rodney) Sultini, Clint (Tara Radlick) McDonald, and Kyle McDonald. Walt is also remembered by his brother-in-law Craig (Jackie) McDonald.

Funeral services will be private. A public celebration of life will be scheduled in the near future. Please look to this site for further details. Memorial tributes to the National Kidney Foundation of Michigan, Inc. are welcome. Please feel free to share memories with the family at their "On-Line Guest Book" at WujekCalcaterra.com “ Walt we had so much fun this day doing the Little Caesars media drop for the roll out of the Pretzel crust you were in your glory sharing old stories with Jim Johnson from back in the day! I was honored you came along with me to do this! We ROCKED it out and were a BIG hit with all the DJ's! I can still hear you say " MEEEECHELLE " every time you saw me in the office. You were so kind when my husband Johnny passed away and always shared such great concert stories. You were truly one of a kind!

“ I will always miss Walt. He has been in my life since we bonded in high school. He is the only friend who has remained in my life from that time. His natural joy and enthusiasm for life, Jacqui and sons, work, and music will always be how I remember him. And I will always remember him. I will hold his beloved family in the light.

“ From Dan Evans - I had the privilege of working with Walt for many years on the TV commercials he created for Little Caesars. His booming laugh still rings clear in my mind's ear. In my eyes, he was passionate, funny, warm, open-hearted and a musical encyclopedia. I read of his passing this morning. My most sincere condolences to Jacqui - he always blushed at the mention of your name - and his boys Dane and Austin and their families. Gone too soon, Walt. Rest in Peace. ”
