

Zachary Matthew Wolschleger

February 9, 1984 - August 3, 2023

Wolschleger, Zachary Matthew Age 39 August 3, 2023. Beloved son of the late Traci Schmitt (Fred Schmitt) and Barry Wolschleger (Mary Jo Wolschleger). Loving brother of Christopher Sorensen(Brooke Bailey) Sister Alyssa Irwin (David Irwin) and Rachel Robinson (Brad Robinson). Dear father of Hailey Arntz, Jenna Arntz, Kaden Arntz(Kristie Arntz) and Lillianna Magee (Heather Magee). Dearest grandson of the late Dr. Herman and Barbara Holste & Albert and Helen Wolschleger. Uncle of Jayden Kelly, Braylen Irwin, Teygan Irwin, Gracie Robinson, and Owen Robinson.

Born in Bad Axe, Zach was always known as the wild child and sweetheart mixed together. Shortly after finishing high school he moved to Detroit following a manufacturing job.

His love for working with his hands lead him into a career in the trades. With his exceptional eye for detail he was good at every trade dabbling in carpentry, roofing, masonry and excavation.

He was an old soul with a big heart. Loving anything that went fast. Known for his cars and toys . Never a boring man, but also man of routine. Everyone will remember his mix of clean fresh white shirts and dirty working hands.

The biggest lover in this world. Babies were his world. He loved figuring out how a toddler ticked or picking his best girl up from school to see her smile. To be loved by Zach was an experience most couldn't describe but didn't want to let go of.

We will never forget that your name was never your name, having a nickname for every person he loved. With his mix of his own language and catch phrases that will never be forgotten.

He will be missed by so many friends family from Bad Axe area, up to Traverse City, down to Detroit and by Terri Honkanen and the community at the Rubber Duck.

A private service with immediate family will take place at St. John's Lutheran Church.

A Celebration of life in Bad Axe including A last ride, will be announced at a later time.

A Memorial will also be held at The Rubber Duck in Clinton Township, at a later time.

Share memories with the family at their "On Line Guest Book" @ WujekCalcaterra.com.

Tribute Wall

BP

“ Brandi Palazzolo lit a candle in memory of Zachary Matthew Wolschleger

Brandi Palazzolo - August 16, 2023 at 09:52 AM

TH

“ You were the light of my life!!!

Theresa Honkanen - August 15, 2023 at 10:38 PM

BP

Love you <3

Brandi Palazzolo - August 16, 2023 at 09:53 AM

VA

“ Valerie A. planted a Memorial Tree in honor of Zachary Matthew Wolschleger.

Valerie A. - August 15, 2023 at 03:09 PM

BP

“ Zack was one of a kind. From the moment we meant, we had a brother sister bond. Always making fun of each other and making others laugh at our weirdness. Most every time we go to the duck we both ended up in the same shirt lol. He was my sole brother. I'll never forget the day I asked him and Terri to let my dogs and I came home to my house all rearranged lol. He always did something to make people laugh and put a smile on your face. I'm truly going to miss my friend. Till we meet again my friend. Tell we meet again. Prayers to his family and all that knew him.

Brandi Palazzolo - August 15, 2023 at 01:36 PM

TH

Thank you, Brandi ☐

Theresa Honkanen - August 15, 2023 at 10:39 PM

NJ

“ Nadine Janik lit a candle in memory of Zachary Matthew Wolschleger

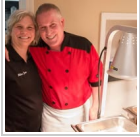

Nadine Janik - August 14, 2023 at 03:31 PM

NJ

I was so sorry to learn of Zack's passing. I just seen him a few months ago as we shared hugs, he seemed so happy and loving life. May you rest in peace my friend. Hugs to the family

Nadine Janik - August 14, 2023 at 03:37 PM

“ Zach, as I read your obituary; my heart was happy for the joy you brought to so many! Having nicknames is part of being a Wolschleger. The fact that you had a special one for each of those you held dear; just makes your Grandma Wolschleger's DNA phrases totally true❤️. I remember holding you little chunk in the back of church as your parents were married. I remember watching you grow up at your home on Western and you and Alyssa joining Grandpa and Grandma as first customers to eat in our new back dining room. That was in 1998. You always seem to be a part of our opening of new spaces because another great memory is of you and your dad helping us unwrap and arrange chairs so we could open our Ballroom. But the one memory I will now cherish forever is of the hug we shared during Mary Jo's birthday celebration and I marveled that you reminded me of a young Farmer! May your guardian angel wings envelop those who loved you most 🙌 Love and hugs of comfort to each of you who loved Zachary Matthew 💕

Helen Wiley - August 12, 2023 at 10:05 AM